

Activities

Students may organize their own activities guided by faculty and staff advisors and supervised by the VPSA.

The Student Senate promotes and coordinates student events and activities, allocating and disbursing student activity funds to support extracurricular activities, including sports. Student interest determines the extent to which these events and activities occur.