

AUTO218W : Working with High Voltage Batteries

Working with High Voltage Batteries is designed to educate potential Electric Vehicle Technicians on how to safely handle high voltage batteries found in hybrid and electric vehicles. Students learn about best practices to prevent incidents and reduce risks associated with handling, storing, and transporting high-voltage batteries.

Lecture Hours 3

Lab Hours 0 Credits 3

Prerequisite Courses

AUTO101W

AUTO112W