

CDT122W : Commercial Driver Training - Theory

Commercial Driver Training Theory can be taken online. It is a practical course that provides a comprehensive study of the basics and application of Commercial Driving, with a focus on the required theory curriculum of safe, legal, and professional operation of Class A Commercial Motor Vehicles for which commercial licensure is a prerequisite. This course also focuses on the skills and behavioral characteristics of a professional commercial driver. Specific instructions are provided to prepare students for learner's permit testing.

Lecture Hours 6

Lab Hours 0 Credits 6