

CRMJ210W : Juvenile Justice Administration

Juvenile Justice Administration examines theories, causation, and prevention programs. It includes the study of rehabilitative theories and treatment programs in public institutions and public and private agencies. Students analyze case studies and examine adolescent behavior, peer pressure, and the role of family.

Lecture Hours 3

Lab Hours 0 Credits 3