

ENGL123W : Writing about Literature

Writing about Literature introduces students to literary analysis. Students learn and practice critical skills in literary analysis, skills enabling them to access and interpret literary works with confidence and intellectual resourcefulness. Students study the primary literary forms (narrative prose fiction, poetry, and drama), as well as others, and apply the skills they learn to make meaningful contributions to the works they study. In this course, students develop research-writing and critical-thinking skills.
