

ENGL225W : Oral Communication

Through practice in speech preparation and presentation, students in Oral Communication gain confidence and poise in public speaking. Students orally present a variety of speeches through various delivery modes (including multimedia presentations) ranging in genre from relatively informal extemporaneous speeches to formal speeches, such as informative and persuasive speeches.

Lecture Hours 3

Lab Hours 0 Credits 3