

ENGL246W : Survey of American Literature

Survey of American Literature introduces students to American literature with emphasis on the post-Revolutionary period. The course takes into account elements of fiction (e.g., theme, plot, character, symbol, style) and offers a critical vocabulary to discuss literature. Students read, analyze, and interpret the works of major American authors within this timeframe. They read closely and critically from a literary perspective, as well as for the range of social, historical, political, and cultural perspectives they represent.
