

HUMA126W : The Cinema: History and Art (American Cinema)

The Cinema: History and Art explores Hollywood film as an industry, art form, means of communication, and system of representatives. In one sense, this is a language course, the language of film. The course also examines the way Hollywood films work technically, artistically, and culturally to both challenge and reinforce America's national self-image.

Lecture Hours 3

Lab Hours 0 Credits 3