

HUMA187W : World Music Drumming

World Music Drumming offers a fundamental approach to world music drumming primarily based on the traditions of West Africa and the Caribbean Islands. Students play tubanos, djembes, shekeres, and other traditional instruments of West Africa. They listen to and communicate with their fellow students, they learn the value and techniques of cooperative teamwork, and they sing songs from various multicultural traditions.

Lecture Hours 3

Lab Hours 0 Credits 3