

MEDA203W : Medical Assistant Internship

In Medical Assistant Internship, students perform administrative and clinical skills and demonstrate professionalism under the supervision of qualified staff members. During the internship, students work in a physician's office and clinical laboratory, as available, adhering to the assigned agency's working hours and policies. The student is not paid for the internship.

Lecture Hours 0

Lab Hours 18 Credits 6

Prerequisites

Successful completion of all required courses